

SACI Golf Outing October 18, 2017

Gallop Hill Golf Club, Kenilworth, NJ

The threat of Hurricane Jose in September forced SACI to play a “Mulligan” and we rescheduled the fall outing to October 18th. This time the weather really cooperated. Not a cloud in the sky, hardly any wind, a touch of cool at the start but temperatures bumped up into the mid 70’s making for a perfect golf day for 30 golfers at Gallop Hill GC in Kenilworth, NJ.

This was our first event at Gallop Hill GC. Based on the responses from the golfers this was one of the better courses we have played in recent memory. We intend to try & return to this gorgeous championship caliber facility next year.

Skill prize winners were:

TEAM LOW SCORE – Mike Hansen, Adam Rosen, Chris Orlando and Christian Larrabee in at -10.

CLOSEST to the PIN at 12’2” went to Jim Stowe

DRIVE CLOSEST to the LINE went to Erich Bodnar

Other winners:

Congratulations to Caitlin McAndrews for winning the 50/50 drawing!

After golf we held our SACI Networking meeting and the skill and door prizes were awarded. In addition to the 30 golfers, 9 “non-golfers” were served a fabulous three entrée buffet dinner and were entertained by Mark Cannizzaro, New York Post writer and columnist. For 30 minutes he relayed his funny moments with his friend Pro Golfer Phil Michelson and experiences covering the NY Jets and Coach Bill Parcells.

Due to the success of this year’s Fall outing we intend to heavily promote next year’s event to attract at least 50 golfers. We’ll then be able to have a “shotgun” start that will allow all the golfers to finish up at the same time.
